

Miss Homecoming III Crowned

Special honors were brought to Seaford High School this year when Governor Elbert N. Carvel attended the Thanksgiving Day festivities to crown Miss Homecoming III, Becky Scott, during the halftime ceremony of the traditional Seaford-Laurel football game.

Becky, who was selected by popular vote of the Senior high school, reigned over the second half of the game and was again honored at a victory dance held that evening by the ALOHA staff.

Other activities of the season included a bonfire and pep rally the preceding night; a parade consisting of the attendants, school band and majorettes, cheerleaders, and five class floats; and gala half-time show presented by the marching band.

By Delaware's Governor Carvel

Governor Carvel speaks to the vast crowd before announcing the new queen. He is accompanied by his daughter, Miss Ann Hall Carvel, who later presented flowers to the six attendants.

SHIBUI Enhances Jr.-Sr. Prom

"Shibui", a Japanese word denoting the highest form of beauty, was the theme of the prom given by the Class of 1962 in honor of the Seniors in May of 1961. Under the leadership of Ruth Ann Smith, everyone put their artistic talents to use and produced breath-taking murals of Japanese landscapes. One feature of the decorations was a unique wind chime suspended from the ceiling in the center of the oriental paradise. The Bernie Grier Orchestra played from an authentic bogota while dancers entered through an entrance composed of painted screens with glittering designs.

It's "Christmas in the Country" for Seniors

"Christmas in the Country" was the theme of the senior dance held December 15, 1961, as a prelude to the holidays. The school cafeteria was magically transformed by silver, greenery, and nylon "snow" into a wintry countryside. Lou Parris' orchestra furnished the music for this delightful semi-formal affair. Fran Stewart served as general chairman, assisted by Carol Eskridge, decorations; Vicki Seney, tickets and publicity; and Cheryl Eikenberry, tables and refreshments.

Advertisements

According to the Delaware State Highway Department, more than 100,000 vehicles are transported each year across the Nanticoke at this point outside of Seaford. The "Virginia C." replaced, in 1960, an older craft that was in service for nearly half a century, as a ferry has been in operation here since 1793. An attraction of a bygone era, the modern visitor may also investigate nearby businesses.
