

Grade 4-12 All Day Tours at Two Sites

The Governor Ross Plantation and the Seaford Museum

Tour this lovely Italianate style mansion located on 20 acres north of Seaford, DE.

Tour the only documented log Slave Quarter in DE

Dress in Victorian attire

Play a wide variety of Victorian games

Grind coffee and shell corn using authentic tools

Seaford Museum

Best small museum in Delaware

Area artifacts tell the story of regional history

River pilots, Harriet Tubman, child labor, and more

Cost:

Two sites all day: $6.00 per student and chaperone

Minimum number of students: 15

1 staff member admitted free for every 10 students

During their 2 ½ hr. visit to the plantation students will:

- Tour the Victorian Mansion and Slave Quarter
- Understand the economic importance of Governor Ross's efforts to bring the railroad to the area.
- Experience life on a farm during the Victorian Period, and see how children dressed and contributed to life on the plantation.
- Play Victorian games, observe a working loom, and more
- Opportunity to purchase Victorian toys, books, ornaments, etc. at the gift shop; priced from $0.25 to $20.00.

During their 2 hr. visit to the museum students will:

- Follow a timeline of Delaware and U.S. history from Native Americans through World War II
- Identify local natural resources and economic factors relating to trade, growth of a town, child labor laws, the poultry industry, and DuPont nylon
- Experience hands-on activities

Tours can be modified to meet academic needs at various grade levels.

*One adult is required for every 10 students.

Picnic area is available for lunch

Groups may be divided so half visits the plantation first and half visits the museum, then switch.

Request a tour on our website using the Education drop-down menu.

If you have questions, call the Seaford Historical Society office at 628-9828 or e-mail at admin@seafordhistoricalsociety.com

Office hours: Tues.-Fri. 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.